Statement

What will you do to remember your past ?

Splitmind TM is a 2D adventure game, developped by Rendal Studio. You play Kaplan, an amnesic shadow awaking in Mnemosyn, « the land of memories ».

Explore Mnemosyn and the « Unamed City », get your memories back, and unravel what happend to you. Your investigation will take you back several years in the past, chasing a serial killer and other events strangely related.

During your journey, you will meet several unique characters like Maria, your main ally in your identity quest.

Splitmind TM will be released during 2016 on PC in a digital version (on Steam among other platforms) in partnership with Plug In Digital, and a few month later on mobile devices (iOS & Android platforms).

A treasure hunt through your memory

The answers are in your memories ...

Splitmind™ is a 2D adventure game, and a trustworthy successor of the Monkey Island, Broken Sword or Maniac Mansion series. The main character is Kaplan, an amnesic shadow awaking in Mnemosyn, « the land of memories». Explore this strange place get your memory back to unravel the mysteries of your past.

To all 2D point&click nostalgic lovers , Splitmind™ has all the ingredients to become a new standard within the genre : tasty dialogs and exploration phases, puzzles, riddles and many items to find, use and combine ...

The game's major strength remain his original story. Between fantastic & film noir genres, with a unique atmosphere, the player build his experience with successives flashbacks. Like in the Memento movie, playing the several memories available bit by bit is the key to discover who really is Kaplan and what happened to him.

Following the « Tarot Killer's » trail

A serial killer is back, will you stop him?

Among all the different playable memories, some will get Kaplan back in time, several years in the past, following a serial killer known as the « Tarot Killer ». His nickname come from his specific method : none of his victims has never been found, but on each crime scene, a arcane de tarot card has always been founded.

Even more confusing, this « killer » has never been captured, not even identified. And someday, he disappeared without a trace, nor any clue. But ten years later, a body is founded, wearing in his pocket un tarot card. All suggests that the « Tarot Killer » has returned.

Kaplan's identity quest wil bring him to chase this dangerous maniac. Could their fates be linked in anyway ? Does this investigation caused Kaplan's memory lost ? You will have to find out...

The main characters

Here are some of the story's main characters, each of them hiding dark secrets ...

KAPLAN :

Kaplan is the tragic hero of the game. With amnesia & no identity, he looks like a fantomatic shadow, as if he escaped from an black & white movie.

MARIA :

She is the first person Kaplan will meet at Mnemosyn and seems to know something more about this place. With amnesia like him, she will help him many times in his pursuit.

LUIS :

He runs the pawnshop in the old town district. Behind his harsh manners, he is a good man.

IRMA :

She draws the cards & sees the future into a crystal ball some will say. She is especially an heartless business woman.

Splitmind's Universe

Splitmind's universe consists of two places, between which the gamer shall make round trips.

MNEMOSYN:

Mnemosyn is where Kaplan awakes. No one knows really what this strange place is, but something is sure : it gives the ability to live some lost memories again.

THE UNAMED CITY:

All the flashbacks, all the memories will lead to this town which have no name. This is where Kaplan will investigate.
